

Media Advisory

August 22, 2019

Media Contact:

Leah Clark

516.841.7510

leahclarkbrisard@gmail.com

Yolanda Lezama-Clark

516.984.8948

yolandalez@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

9TH ANNUAL CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL and YOUTH PAN FEST

Brooklyn, NY – (Saturday, August 24, 2019) – The Carlos Lezama Archives and Caribbean Cultural Center (CLACC-C) will host its' 9TH annual Children's Festival and Youth Pan Fest, which showcases junior steel pan talent. The festival, which serves as a precursor to the Caribbean Labor Day weekend festivities, is held on the CLACC-C museum grounds at St. John's Place between Kingston & Brooklyn Avenues. The free festival runs from 1pm to 8pm.

What: Children's Panorama contest

When: Saturday, August 24, 2019; 3PM

Where: St. John's Place, between Kingston and Brooklyn Avenues in Brooklyn, New York

Who: Yolanda Lezama-Clark, President of Clacc-C
Local Elected Officials invited
Chief of NYPD Brooklyn North invited

Why: This event helps engage the community and preservation of Caribbean culture in New York City.

If you would like more information about this event, please call Leah Clark at 516.841.7510 or email leahclarkbrisard@gmail.com.

###

